[10] ある日、あなたはALTの先生から以下の英字新聞の切り抜き記事(お悩み相談コーナー)をもらいました。今回のお悩み相談コーナーは、相談員キャシー(Kathy)が中学生トム(Tom)の悩みに答えています。次の英文を読み、各問いに答えなさい。

Dear Kathy,

Hi. I'm Tom, a 15-year-old student in junior high school. I have a problem. I can't sleep well at night. I try to go to bed early, but I just can't *1 fall asleep. Please help me!

Dear Tom,

Thank you for your question. I understand that you are very worried. However, you are not the only one to have this type of problem. Some research shows that many people have a hard time sleeping at night. I have four *2 tips for better sleep.

The first tip is to try to wake up and go to bed at the same time every day. For example, if you wake up at 6 a.m. and go to bed at 10 p.m. on weekdays, do the same on weekends. Why? It's because we all have a 24-hour clock in our bodies. You will feel great when your body knows what to do and when to do it. Many people use *3 an alarm clock to wake up in the morning. If you often study or watch TV until late at night, I have a great idea for you to try. Set an alarm to know when to go to bed, too.

The second tip is to keep your bedroom cool. Your head and your body need to cool down to sleep well. This is the reason you can't fall asleep when the room is too hot. Keep the room temperature around 25°C.

The third tip is to keep your bedroom dark. It will make you feel sleepy. One hour before you go to bed, do not use computers and smartphones. This means that you should not watch TV or play games on your smartphone in bed. If you share a bedroom with your brothers or sisters and can't turn off the light at your bedtime, (②) will be helpful.

The final tip is to have *4 a wind-down routine. We can't just turn off the light and sleep right away. It takes some time to *5 slow down the body and feel sleepy. In the last 20 minutes before you go to bed, do something *6 relaxing and remember happy memories of the day. For example, some people like taking a shower, *7 stretching their bodies, or listening to quiet music. Other people remember the day's events that made them happy. Find a good way for you and do it every night.

Sleep is very important for us to be healthy and happy. Please try some of these tips. I hope they will help you sleep well, Tom!

*1 fall asleep : 眠りに落ちる

*2 tip(s) : コツ
